Divisions

Policy Statement

It is the policy of the Mountaineers to charter divisions when it is appropriate to coordinate related club wide programs that are not affiliated with branches.

Application

1. The following divisions are established:
   - Conservation
   - Recreational Properties
   - Recreational Resources

2. The Recreational Properties Division shall:
   - Have a vice-president as described in Section IV of the bylaws, "Officers."
   - Work to fulfill its board-approved charter, organizing and staffing committees as needed to do so.

3. Each of the other divisions shall:
   - Have a chairperson who is appointed by the president with approval by the board.
     - The term of office shall be two years.
     - The chairperson may be reappointed.
     - No board member may hold the office of division chairperson.
   - Have a division liaison, who is a member of the board and is appointed by the president as the board's representative to the division with a term of one year.
   - Work to fulfill its board-approved charter, organizing and staffing committees as needed to do so.

4. The president, with the approval of the board, may remove any division appointee who is not performing his or her duties satisfactorily.

5. Divisions shall hold periodic meetings to conduct their business. These meetings shall:
   - Have their dates and times listed in club communications.
   - Be open to all members of the club.

Responsibilities

The president is responsible for appointing division chairpersons.

Division chairpersons are responsible for:

- Coordinating the work of the division and its committees to fulfill the purposes stated in its charter.
- Chartering committees as needed to organize the division's work.
- Preparing reports of division meetings and activities for presentation to the board.
- Making recommendations to the board as needed to fulfill the division's charter.

Board liaisons are responsible for:

- Providing guidance to the division on club policy, procedures, and objectives.
- Assuring that the board is advised of any significant division developments.
