

BYLAWS
OF
THE MOUNTAINEERS

Article I - Name and Location

The name of the corporation shall be The Mountaineers, and its principal place of business shall be in the City of Seattle, King County, State of Washington, but the corporation may establish branches anywhere, within or without the State of Washington.

Article II - Statement of Purposes

The purposes of corporation, as stated in its Articles of Incorporation, are to operate exclusively for charitable, scientific, literary, or educational purposes, within the meaning of Section 501(c)(3) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended, or any successor provision. The corporation's board of directors may, in addition, adopt a statement of purposes setting forth the specific purposes of the corporation, which statement, and any amendments or modifications thereto, shall be subject to approval by at least five percent (5%) of members in good standing.

Article III- Board of Directors

- Section 1 Powers of the Board of Directors. The governing board, to be termed the board of directors, shall control all expenditures, make rules and determine policy for the use of the corporation's property and programs, and act for the interest of the corporation in any way not inconsistent with these Bylaws.
- Section 2 Directors. The board of directors shall consist of nine elected at-large directors, a director from each branch, the president, president-elect, vice president of publishing, secretary, treasurer and vice president of outdoor centers of the organization and the retiring president for one year after his or her term as president, if he or she is not otherwise an elected director. Employees are not eligible to serve as a director.
- Section 3 Term of Office. Directors, including elected at-large directors and directors elected by the branches, shall serve a term of three years beginning upon certification of their election but not later than November 1 following the date of their election. A director may serve no more than two consecutive three-year terms. The term of a director who has been appointed to fill a vacancy with a term of less than three years shall not be counted in applying this limitation. A director who ceases to be a director for a period of at least one year after having served two consecutive three-year terms may be re-elected.
- Section 4 Nominations for Directors At Large. The Nominating Committee shall nominate candidates for director at large positions. Members of the corporation may submit three additional candidates from the floor at the annual meeting. No member may nominate more than one person. If the nominations from the floor exceed three names, the members present shall immediately ballot on the names so presented and only the three receiving the highest total of the vote so cast shall be considered nominated.

- Section 5 Election of Directors At Large. Three directors at large shall be elected by the membership each year, except when vacancies must be filled. Members who are entitled to vote shall elect the directors at large. Election results shall be reported to the membership by announcement in the corporation's publications.
- Section 6 Election of Branch Directors. The procedures for election of directors from each branch shall be determined by each branch.
- Section 7 Vacancies. The board of directors shall fill any vacancies of at large directors. Each Branch shall fill any vacancies in their branch directors. Any person so appointed shall serve only until the next annual election.
- Section 8 Removal of Directors. Any director may be removed from office by a two-thirds vote of the entire board for good cause and after suitable hearing of a due process committee of non-board members appointed by the board.

Article IV – Committees of the Board

- Section 1 Committees. The board may by resolution adopted by a majority of the board, create and dissolve standing or special committees of the board. Any such committee shall consist of two (2) or more directors and shall have and exercise such authority of the board in the management of the corporation as may be specified in said resolution. However, no such committee shall have the authority of the board to amend, alter or repeal the Bylaws; elect, appoint or remove any member of any such committee or any director or officer of the corporation; amend the Articles of Incorporation; adopt a plan of merger or adopt a plan of consolidation with another corporation; authorize the voluntary dissolution of the corporation or revoke proceedings therefore; adopt a plan for the distribution of the assets of the corporation not in the ordinary course of business; or amend, alter or repeal any resolution of the board which by its terms provides that it shall not be amended, altered or repealed by such committee. The designation and appointment of any such committee and the delegation of authority to it shall not operate to relieve the board or any individual director of any responsibility imposed upon it, him or her by law.
- Section 2 The Executive Committee. There shall be an Executive Committee of the board consisting of the president, president-elect, vice president of publishing, secretary, treasurer, and vice president of outdoor centers. The Executive Director and the Books Division publisher shall participate on this committee as ex officio non-voting members; provided, however that each shall leave any portion of a meeting at which an issue is discussed or voted upon with respect to which he or she has a conflict of interest, except to the extent necessary to respond to questions from Executive Committee members. The Executive Committee is empowered to act in the board's stead between meetings of the board or when special circumstances of timeliness or emergency require such action in order to protect the best interests of the corporation. Such action shall be subject to ratification by the Board.

Section 3 Nominating Committee. There shall be a Nominating Committee of the board consisting of at least three members, two of whom shall be members of the board who are not eligible for re-election while they are serving on the committee. The other members shall not be members of the board. The Nominating Committee shall recruit and nominate for election candidates for open at-large director positions. Candidates must be members in good standing. The committee shall submit the names of the persons selected by a report sent to the members through the corporation's publications prior to the annual meeting. Their report shall also be presented at the annual meeting. The Nominating Committee may also help recruit and select candidates for officer positions. Members of the Nominating Committee shall serve terms of one year, with a limit of two consecutive terms served.

Section 4 Finance Committee. There shall be a Finance Committee of the board, consisting of at least three members, and shall include the corporation's Treasurer, who shall serve as the Finance Committee's chair. The Finance Committee shall have the responsibility for overseeing the preparation of the annual budget for presentation to and approval by the board. The Finance Committee shall also be responsible for monitoring the corporation's performance against the annual budget and for monitoring the corporation's total assets.

Article V- Officers

Section 1 Officers. The officers of the corporation shall be a president, president-elect, vice president of publishing, secretary, treasurer and vice president of outdoor centers. Any two (2) or more offices may be held by the same person, except the offices of president and secretary.

Section 2 Duties of the President. The president shall recommend for approval by the board the chairpersons, and members of the standing and special committees. The president shall have the authority to select, hire, supervise and terminate the executive director upon the approval of the Executive Committee and supervise his or her activities to ensure that the corporation is fiscally responsible at all times, and that the staff is efficiently managed. The president shall preside at the meetings of the membership and of the board, and shall act as the spokesperson for the corporation.

Section 3 Duties of the President-Elect. The president-elect shall act in the absence or disability of the president. He or she shall prepare for becoming the president of the corporation, with the expectation of being nominated for that office when the current president's term is completed.

Section 4 Duties of the Vice President of Publishing. The vice president of publishing shall help to ensure that the corporation's Books Division best fulfills the corporation's purposes and shall otherwise act as a resource to the Books Division.

Section 5 Duties of the Secretary. The secretary shall be clerk of the corporation, shall keep a record of all the proceedings and an annual summary of activities of the corporation and board and shall give notice to the members of the time and place of meetings. In the absence of the secretary from any meeting, a temporary secretary designated by the person presiding at the meeting shall perform the duties of the secretary at such meeting. In the absence of the president or vice president from any meeting of the members of the board the secretary shall preside. The secretary shall insure that procedures are established and properly operating for elections to the board.

Section 6 Duties of the Treasurer. The treasurer shall insure that procedures are established and properly operating for the collection and disbursement of all funds belonging to the corporation. The treasurer shall insure that proper accounts are kept and, when requested by the board, present a report of its financial condition.

Section 7 Duties of the Vice President of Outdoor Centers. The vice president of outdoor centers shall serve as the chairperson of the Outdoor Centers Division which offers advice on how the outdoor centers might best fulfill the mission of the corporation and otherwise acts as a resource for outdoor center operations.

Section 8 Election of Officers. The officers shall be elected by the board from among their number or from among the membership of the corporation every two years at a meeting, the time and place of which shall be determined by the Board from time to time. Officers shall assume office at the next regular board meeting following their election and shall serve for a period of two years or until their successors shall be elected. A person shall not serve two consecutive terms for the same office except for the office of treasurer, vice president of publishing and vice president of outdoor centers.

Only the nine elected directors at large and the directors elected from each branch, or directors appointed to fill vacancies in either of these categories, shall be eligible to vote for officers.

Section 9 Removal of Officers. Any elected officer may be removed from office at any time by a two-thirds vote of the entire board.

Section 10 Vacancies. The Board of Directors shall fill all vacancies in any officer position. Only the nine elected directors at large and the directors elected from each branch, or directors appointed to fill vacancies in either of these categories, shall be eligible to vote to fill any vacant offices. Any person so appointed shall serve only until the next election of officers.

Article VI- Executive Director The corporation shall employ an Executive Director, who shall be the corporation's chief executive officer and shall exercise all executive powers pertaining to that position. The compensation of the Executive Director and the terms and duration of his or her employment shall be determined by the board of directors.

Article VII - Membership

- Section 1 Eligibility. Any person who meets criteria established by the board is eligible to become a member of the corporation by the submission of a signed application and liability waiver, along with payment of the required dues and application fee.
- Section 2 Denial of Application. The board may deny by a two-thirds vote of the entire board any application for membership for any reason not restricted by law, whereupon all moneys tendered by the applicant shall be returned.
- Section 3 Membership Categories. The board may establish various categories of membership with differing dues and fees to serve the needs of the membership and the purposes of the corporation.
- Section 4 Expulsion. Any member may be expelled by a two-thirds vote of the entire board for good cause and after suitable hearing before the board or a due process committee of non-board members appointed by the board.
- Section 5 Cessation of Membership. When a membership ceases, from any circumstance whatever, all rights and interests thereunder revert to the corporation.
- Section 6 Eligibility for Voting. All members in good standing in all membership categories shall be eligible to vote.
- Section 7 Voting. Members who are entitled to vote may vote in person at any meeting, or such member may vote by mail or electronic transmission (such as email or "web voting"). Whenever proposals are to be voted upon by members, the vote may be taken by mail or by electronic transmission (such as email or "web voting") if the name of each candidate and the text of each proposal to be voted upon are set forth in the notice of the meeting. A vote may be conducted by electronic transmission if the corporation has designated an address, location, or system to which the ballot may be electronically transmitted and the ballot is electronically transmitted to the designated address, location, or system, in an executed electronically transmitted record.
- Section 8 Quorum. Except as otherwise specified in these Bylaws, by the Articles of Incorporation or by law, the members present at any meeting of the membership shall constitute a quorum. Members voting by mail or by electronic transmission are present for all purposes of quorum, count of votes and percentages of total voting power present. The vote of a majority of the votes entitled to be cast by the members present at a meeting at which a quorum is present, shall be necessary for the adoption of any matter voted upon by the members.

Article VIII - Meetings

- Section 1 Annual Meeting. The annual meeting of the members shall be held in Seattle or a city where a branch of the corporation is located. It will be held in the month of September at a date and time to be determined by the Board from time to time.
- Section 2 Special Meetings. Special meetings of the members may be called by the president or a majority of the entire board. Members shall receive notice no less than 10 days and no more than 50 days before the meeting.
- Section 3 Board Meetings. The board shall meet at least quarterly. Board meetings shall be held in the corporation headquarters office unless otherwise stated by the board, on a schedule established by the board. A majority of the entire board shall constitute a quorum. Members of the board or its committees may participate in a meeting of the board or such committees by means of a conference telephone or similar communications equipment by means of which all persons participating in the meeting can hear each other at the same time and participation by such means shall constitute presence in person at a meeting.
- Section 4 Notice of Meetings. Any notice required under these Bylaws may be delivered by regular or express mail, private carrier, personal delivery, email, electronic network posting, facsimile, telegram or teletype or by announcement in corporation publications.
- Section 4.1 Section 4.1 Consent to Notice By Email. If notice is provided to directors, officers or members by email, it is effective only with respect to those directors, officers and members who have: (a) consented in writing or by email to receive notices transmitted by email; and (b) designated in the consent the message format that is accessible to the recipient, and the address, location, or system to which these notices may be emailed. A director, officer or member who has consented to receipt of emailed notices may revoke the consent by delivering (by mail, facsimile or email) a revocation to the corporation. The consent of any director, officer or member is revoked if the corporation is unable to transmit by email two (2) consecutive notices given by the corporation in accordance with the director's, officer's or member's consent, and this inability becomes known to the secretary of the corporation or other person responsible for giving the notice. The inadvertent failure by the corporation to treat this inability as a revocation does not invalidate any meeting or other action.
- Section 4.2 Delivery of Notice By Email. Notice provided by email to a director, officer or member who has consented to receive notice by such means is effective when it is emailed to an address designated by the recipient for that purpose.
- Section 4.3 Delivery of Notice By Posting to Electronic Network. Delivery of Notice by Email. The corporation may provide notice of the time and place of any meeting of the directors or members by posting the notice on an electronic network (such as a listserv), provided that the corporation also delivers to the director or member notice of the posting by mail, facsimile, or email (pursuant to the recipient's consent to receive notices by email), together with comprehensible instructions regarding how to obtain access to the posting on the electronic network.

Section 4.4

Delivery of Notice By Other Means. If mailed, such notice shall be deemed to be delivered when deposited in the United States mail addressed to the director, officer or member at his or her address as it appears on the records of the corporation, with postage thereon prepaid. Other forms of notice described in this section are effective when received.

Section 5

Actions by Written Consent. Any corporate action required or permitted by the Articles of Incorporation or Bylaws, or by the laws of the State of Washington, to be taken at a meeting of the board of directors (or its committees) of the corporation, may be taken without a meeting if a consent in writing or by email transmission setting forth the action so taken shall be executed (as defined herein) by all of the directors entitled to vote with respect to the subject matter thereof. Such consent shall have the same force and effect as a unanimous vote, and may be described as such. For purposes of the Bylaws, "executed" means: (a) writing that is signed; or (b) an email transmission that is sent with sufficient information to determine the sender's identity.

Section 6

Rules of Order. The current edition of Roberts' Rules of Order, Newly Revised, shall govern in all parliamentary procedures.

Article IX – Branches

Section 1

Establishment. A branch may be created by the board when petitioned to do so by existing members if, after an examination of the facts and circumstances, the board concludes that the interests of the corporation and the members will be served thereby.

Section 2

Branch Rules and Policies. Each branch may adopt such local rules and policies as are not inconsistent with the bylaws and general board policies.

Section 3

Voting Privileges. All members are equal in standing as members, except only branch members with voting privileges shall be entitled to vote at branch meetings and elections.

Section 4

Branch Financial Accountability. Each branch shall keep financial records and make reports under the supervision of the corporation's treasurer.

Article X - Amendments to Bylaws

- Section 1 Amendments Proposed. Amendments to the bylaws may be proposed in either one of two ways:
- a) By petition by any member of the corporation, or
 - b) By majority vote of the Board of Directors.
- Section 2 Amendment Proposed by Petition: Any corporation member may propose an amendment to the bylaws by presenting to the corporation secretary a petition of support for said amendment signed by five percent (5%) of members in good standing.
- The proposed amendment must be presented to the corporation secretary, along with the above referenced petition, who shall then present the proposed amendment to the board at its next meeting or within 15 days of receipt, whichever is later.
- Any member-proposed bylaws amendment shall be accepted by the board at the first regular meeting of the board following the meeting at which it is presented, provided that the signatures on the proposing petition have been found by the corporation's secretary to be valid. The board shall accept the proposed amendment for inclusion in the next annual ballot, and may choose to either endorse the amendment with a majority vote, to oppose the amendment with a majority vote, or not take any action. A member-proposed bylaw amendment must reach the corporation secretary by May 1 in order to allow advance notice to corporation members by the end of July and inclusion on the regular annual ballot. The board may choose to endorse the amendment with a majority vote.
- Section 3 Amendments Proposed by the Board of Directors: Any individual board member, or any board committee, may propose an amendment to the bylaws. The proposed amendment must be presented to the corporation secretary, who shall then present the proposed amendment to the board at its next meeting or within 15 days of receipt, whichever is later.
- The board shall vote on the proposed amendment at the first regular meeting of the board following the meeting at which it is presented. A simple majority vote of the board is required to place the amendment on the annual election ballot or special ballot. Such a majority vote shall also constitute board endorsement.
- Amendments proposed by the Board of Directors must be acted upon at the June board meeting or earlier in order to allow advance notice to corporation members by inclusion on the regular annual ballot.
- Section 4 Vote of Membership Required. Any bylaw amendment shall be submitted for approval by the membership at the next regularly scheduled election or by special ballot. Approval by the membership shall be defined as a simple majority of votes received. An amendment shall be effective the first day of the month following approval, unless it states otherwise.

A report of the election results complete with ballot counts will be reported to the membership shortly after the ballots are counted.

Article XI - Indemnification Indemnification is as provided in the Articles of Incorporation.

Article XII - Financial and Administrative Provisions

- Section 1 Fiscal Year. The last day of the corporation's fiscal year shall be September 30.
- Section 2 Loans Prohibited. . The corporation shall make no loans to any officer or to any director.
- Section 3 Ineligibility of Employees. Employees shall not be eligible for any elected office, or for service as the chair of any standing or special committee.
- Section 4 Books and Records; Inspection Rights. The corporation shall keep at its registered office, its principal office in this State, or at its secretary's office if in this State, the following: Current articles and bylaws; correct and adequate records of accounts and finances; a record of officers' and directors' names and addresses; a record of members, including names, addresses and classes of members; minutes of the meetings of the board, members, and any minutes that may be maintained by committees of the board. Records may be written or electronic if capable of being converted to writing. All books and records of the corporation may be inspected by any director, or his or her agent or attorney, for any proper purpose at any reasonable time. The records shall be open at any reasonable time to inspection by any member of more than three (3) month's standing or a representative of more than five percent (5%) of the membership. Cost of inspecting or copying shall be borne by such member except for costs for copies of articles or bylaws. Any such member must have a purpose for inspection reasonably related to membership interests. Use or sale of members' lists by such member if obtained by inspection is prohibited.
- Section 5 Yearly Audit. The board shall each year employ an outside independent accountant to review and/or audit the books and accounts of the corporation and at the close of each year shall present a written report of his or her findings.

Statement of Purposes

To: Board of Trustees From: Eric Linxweiler
cc: Date: 4 November 2010
Subject: Founding Purposes

On November 4, 2010 The Board of Trustees of The Mountaineers adopts the following as our founding principles, which will be used to guide for strategic planning and major organizational decisions relative to charter, mission, and the future of The Mountaineers.

To explore, study, and enjoy the mountains, forests, and watercourses of the Northwest and beyond; to gather into permanent form the history and traditions of these regions and explorations; to preserve, by the encouragement of protective legislation or otherwise, the natural beauty of the natural environment; to make expeditions and provide educational opportunities in fulfillment of the above purposes; to encourage a spirit of good fellowship among the lovers of outdoor life; to hold and sustain landscapes, properties and program sites for the furtherance of the purposes of the organization.

Further, the Board of Trustees requires a minimum 75% Board approval to modify these in the future.
