ACT 1

Mandala (Tour Edit)

Kilian Bron, Pierre Henni, Valentin Birant

Kilian Bron and his team journey from Kathmandu to Nepal's remote Dolpo region, navigating dizzying ridgelines and timeless villages. Blending adventure, reflection, and human connection, their ride explores isolation, cultural encounter, and the meaning of responsible travel—capturing the raw essence of exploration in one of the world's most secluded valleys.

Flow Vision (Tour Edit)

Ambroise Trauet

There is something that has always excited Ambroise in Downhill Skateboarding: it's those moments you experience two or three times in a season or even in your life. He has only experienced this a few times in his life while skating, so he decided to skate the most challenging road in Europe to immerse himself in this mental state – the flow state.

Robson

Philip Forsey

Two world-class ski mountaineers, Christina Lustenberger and Guillaume Pierrel, attempt a daring first descent of Mount Robson's South Face, retracing the footsteps of alpine pioneers and the weight of a legacy that has challenged generations.

Josh Goldsmith

There's a tense moment before every grand performance where apprehension turns to belief, and preparation meets presentation. We follow the interwoven journey of a skier and a rapper as they individually navigate this moment on stages of their own choosing.
