The Mountaineers - Everett Branch
- PRESENT:
Folkdance!

(Co-sponsored by Everett Parks & Recreation)

Thank Heavens for annual banquets! We see friends we haven't connected with all year long. And as the banquet draws to a close you ponder where you and those friends could finish out the evening. This year the folkdance committee thought of you. Come on up to Floral Hall at Forest Park and kick up your dancing shoes. Floral Hall features hardwood floors, log beam construction, and a beautiful stone fireplace. The dance is open to the public so those guests you took to the banquet are welcome. The MC for the evening is Don Finrow, the instructor for our lesson series. As always, there are lessons from 8-9 P.M. and the dance is from 9-12 P.M. No admission is charged at the door but we gladly accept donations to help cover our costs.

The fall lesson series is in progress. If you've taken the lessons in the past, you are welcome to come refresh your skills (no fee). If you have been wondering what this lesson business is all about, come take a peek at Floral Hall on Tuesday nights from 8:15 to 9:15.

LOOKOUT PEAKS AWARD

The Lookout Peak Award is presented to Mountaineers who climb any 12 of the following 19 peaks. In order to receive the award, the applicant must petition the Hiking Awards Committee listing: 1) Peaks climbed, 2) Dates, and 3) Members of the party (party should be minimum of 3, at least one other a Mountaineer). Any previous Lookout Peaks climbed before October 1987 can be counted. Those peaks are: Mt. Pilchuck, trail route before September 1978, Mt. Pilchuck via Pinnacle Lake and Lichtenberg Mt. before October 1987.

The original list comprised of peaks which offered wide vistas and the summits were reached by a trail or no technical climbing equipment was needed. The extended list includes peaks which have or have had lookouts and are reached by a trail. In expanding the list, participants have a wider selection of peaks. At the same time, the wider choice should lessen our impact on Wilderness areas.

TRUSTEE REPORT

Election Results: Both Bylaws passed giving control of dues and fees to the board and establishing a majority of trustees needed for a quorum. The new trustees are Tom Allen, Carsten Lien, Tim Jung, Bill Maxwell, and Judy Ramburg.

The climbing committee in Seattle is gathering information about producing a new edition of Freedom of the Hills. They need suggestions about where and how the text is out of date or otherwise inadequate, about the content of a new edition, and how the edition should be produced. In the past revisions have been made by a volunteer group. However this may take too long this time. Please send comments to Ken Small, climbing committee chair at the clubhouse.

The new roster has mistakes due to computer errors. Please call the clubroom with corrections you have.

I will be chairing a committee to make recommendations on a formal Mountaineers guest policy. Please contact me if you have suggestions.

Thank you -- Dana Miller
