THE NEWSLETTER IS BACK!

A new Communications Committee has been formed which will be responsible for the publication of the Newsletter and submitting information to The Mountaineer. Six of us are going to be attempting the work that Dianne Duffy and Don Heck have been doing pretty much on their own these last many months.

I want to give them a big THANK YOU for all those lost weekends and evenings to make sure the presses kept rolling!

Thanks, too, to Marjorie Schaller, Dorothy Beeman and John Witters (and, most likely, others unknown to me.) who helped Dianne and Don at various times and who we hope will continue.

The newsletter will be changing in format and will not always include all the information that is printed in the bulletin, although added trips or updated information will always be welcome. More information will follow.

NEWSLETTER DUE DATE: November 2 will be the deadline for getting items into the next newsletter. You can also hand in items at the November 2 meeting.

BULLETIN DUE DATES: Items to be published in the December issue of The Mountaineer are due October 20

Send all items to Everett Mountaineers, P.O. Box 1848, Everett, 98206. Be sure to specify in which publication and issue you want the item(s). Thanks!!

ATTENTION SKIERS

If you would like to lead Mountaineer ski tours and are not now on the "Ski Leader List," send a letter to Ted Case indicating:

Your skiing background

Courses you've taken
Ski tours you've done
Other experience

Type of tours you wish to lead

Basic Nordic
Telemark
Backcountry

Your leadership background

Leading and/or instructing for other committees

Other related experience

Special training, such as in

Don't let this list scare you. We want more tour leaders. We just need to know a little about you so we can certify you at the appropriate level.

Please send in your application anytime. There is no deadline. The sooner we receive it, though, the sooner we can get your tours listed in The Mountaineer and Everett Newsletter.

Send information to : Ted Case,
