

Seattle Hiking Committee - Steps to become a Hike Leader

- 1. Attend 2.5 hour hike leader seminar. Pre-requisites for the seminar are as follows:
 - Mountaineers member
 - New Mountaineers members who have not participated in any Mountaineers activities must participate in 3 club day hikes before attending the seminar.
 - Current members with a record of activities (e.g., scrambling, climbing) but no participation in day hikes may complete the 3 club day hikes after the Seminar, but before leading their mentored hike.
 - Please note that urban hikes cannot be used to meet the day hike requirements in the preceding 2 bullets.
- 2. Read all resource materials on course activity page.
- 3. Complete Hike leader application.
- 4. Identify a mentor and request temporary hike leader status by sending an email to: SeattleHikeLeader@gmail.com
- 5. If you need assistance identifying a mentor, send an email to SeattleHikeLeader@gmail.com with the mentored hike you'd like to lead and the pace at which you intend to lead it.
- 6. Post and lead a mentored club day hike. The hike must meet the following criteria:
 - Hike must not be associated with a course
 - Hike may not be an urban hike or a night hike
 - Hike must be a minimum of 4-5 miles and 1000' elevation gain
 - Hike leader candidate must post the hike as the primary leader and register the mentor as the co-leader; hike should be posted under the Seattle Hiking Committee
 - Hike should be open to a minimum of 8 participants
 - Hike must have a minimum 10-day sign-up window
 - Hike should enable demonstration of the skills presented during the seminar.
- 7. Close the activity after completion.
- 8. Receive positive recommendation from mentor to be granted permanent hike leader status.
- 9. Seattle hiking committee will inform you that you've met the requirements to become a hike leader and ask you to confirm that you'd like to be added to the active leader roster.

Mentor Requirements

Mentor selected must be a current hike leader and have led a minimum of 6 club hikes.
